Incorporated, with a Capital

Stock of $10,000.

Aley, of Bloomington; George F. Bass, of ence lessons prepared and conducted by professors of the different Indiana colleges.

dianapolis public schools for several years.

The Typewriter Exchange incorporated yesterday to carry on a business of buying, selling and renting typewriters. The company is located in Indianapolis and has a capital stock of $10,000. The incorporators are Thomas Judd, Walter H. Judd and J.

Another company incorporated yesterday is Hadley, Wall & Co., manufacturers of heels, toplifts and other articles in which the use of leather enters. The capital stock is $10,000 and its place of business is Columbia City. W. P. Bosworth, J. E. Johnson

The Tekoppel & Dreier Land Company, with a capital stock of $10,000, held by John

H. Tekoppel, Henry E. Dreier and B. Henry

Munning, all of Evansville, is a new concern. The company is located at Evansville and will engage in the buying, selling,

With the ultimate purpose of establishing a summer resort on the shore of Lake

City for the purpose of buying and selling pany, of Omaha. The capital stock of the

This Is Said to Be the Opinion of Attorneys Employed by the Company.

According to the opinion of the attorneys of the Consumers' Gas Trust Company, the ural gas from Indianapolis. The opinion is based on the fact that as soon as the company ceases supplying gas to Indianapolis

the trust is at an end and the property belongs to the certificate holders. It is the opinion of the attorneys that the company streets. An arrangement with the Traction & Terminal Company may be made for the Dunn Gets Rehearing.

The Supreme Court yesterday granted a rehearing in the case of Charles W. Dunn,

Be Important to the Association.

The fourteenth annual meeting of the association has yet held and will be of unusual importance. The officers of the as-

The headquarters of the delegates will be programme of the meeting:

Trustee John M. Bloss.

jean, Trustee J. S. Rogers.

District meetings.

Yeaman.

torney general.

S. T. Beaver.

nominations.

Horsting.

William L. Taylor.

tary Board of Charity.

3:00 p. m.-Miscellaneous.

Trustee G. M. Gavin.

at the English Hotel. The following is the

-Thursday, Jan. 21 .-

10:45 a. m.-Inaugural address, County

11:20 a. m.-Appointment of committees.

2:15 p. m .- "The Trustee as a School Offi-

3:00 p. m .- "Tree Planting in Indiana," W

H. Freeman, secretary Board of Forestry.

3:25 p. m.-Discussion led by Trustee A. I

3:40 p. m.-Address, Charles W. Miller, at-

-Friday, Jan. 22.-

9:45 a. m .- "The Trustee as a Bookseller,"

11:10 a. m.-Discussion led by Trustee .

1:15 p. m .- "The Law and the Trustee,"

3:30 p. m.-Reports of committees, Ad

Trustee Pearson Mendenhall, Trustee F. A. | charity.

D. Butt, Trustee Elroy B. Smith.

State Superintendent Charles Gros-

10:00 a. m.-Assembly at Statehouse.

Superintendent Philip S. Sullivan.

erection of a freight depot or depots.

Cothrell, a little girl, at Wallen,

AND MAINTAIN TRUST

CANNOT TURN OFF GAS

Fred Judd, all of Indianapolis.

and Ed A. Sabin are the directors.

holding and leasing of lands.

James A. Newton.

company is $1,000.

NEW WAY FOR STUDENTS

Foster Gloves 73c a Pair

All sizes, all colors and-all right. All Foster Gloves in the favorite "William" quality are to be closed out for good. If you care for a bargain in Gloves of known merit make a point of visiting this special sale Saturday. While the price, as now lowered, will stay down, the color and size assortment is sure to be broken within a short while. Saturday you may have these genuine Foster Gloves in black, brown, mode, gray or white, any size

If you pay more than we charge for repairing your Watch you pay too

Main Springs......50c Cleaning 500

Fletcher M. Noe, Jeweler 103 North Illinois St.

There was never yet a philosopher that could endure the toothache patiently. -Shakspeare.

Office Furniture

If you did not start the new year right it is not too late to begin. An that it keeps your papers in a constant muss may seem a small matter. So is a toothache, though it generally manages to occupy the center of the stage until it is decisively dealt with.

Office Desk

We can give you a desk suited to a business man's needs for $30.00, or as much more as you may care to put into extra size and finish.

BADGER FURNITURE CO.

SEALS, STENCILS AND STAMPS.

MAYER, SEALS, STENCILS STAMPS TEL 1386. 15 EMERIDIAN ST. GROUND PLOOR.

LISTON FRADY PROMISES TO BECOME BETTER MAN

He Is Acquitted in the Criminal Court on a Charge of Forgery.

Liston Frady was acquitted in the Criminal Court yesterday of the charge of condicted jointly with Sherman Parsley for conspiracy, and they were charged with forging a check for $10 made out by J. L. Branigan, of Franklin, Ind., and drawn on the Merchants' National Bank of this city. Parsley has not yet been tried on the

It was brought out in Frady's trial that he had been convicted of petit larceny both at Franklin and Lebanon, under the name of Charles Sebastian, and had done time at Michigan City and Jeffersonville. The charge of conspiracy could not be proven to the satisfaction of the jury and he was equitted. Frady told the court, after he was discharged, that he would leave his old associates and quit drinking and would be come a better man.

IMPROVEMENT SOCIETY ANNOUNCES COMMITTEES

Committees for the Indianapolis Improvement Society were announced yesterday by President W. W. Woollen, as follows:

Membership-Russel M. Seeds, Mrs. C C. Brown, Lewis Hoover, F. W. Olin and F. S. Hoyt. Trees and shrubs-L. B. Freeman, G. M. Ballard, Henry Coburn, Benjamin H. Dugdale, Dr. O. S. Coffin and Dr. A. W. Brayton. Flower gardening-John Bertermann, Mrs. Henry Severin, John Navin, J. D. Lundy, J. A. Everitt, A. Weigand, Mrs. J. E. Twiname, Mrs. Charles R. Wilhams, Mrs. Clara Walker and George Bass. Kitchen gardening-E. F. Lentz. Mrs. E. F. Lentz, A. Wacher, Fred Hetherington and Mrs. Mary Moody. Streets sidewalks and alleys-William Haueisen, Dr. J. N. Hurty, J. R. Pierson, Fred Fueh-ring and Mrs. Henry Rauh. Bridges-C. C. Brown, John McGregor, Thomas E. Hibben, C. A. Kenyon and Allen Hendricks. Parks -H. C. Allen, H. K. Landon, A. V. Brown, Frank Flanner and A. F. Potts. Residences and lawns-Henry Wallace, Mrs. J. T. Eaglesfield, Mary S. Dean, J. Cumming Smith and Grace J. Clark. Business buildings-S. H. Brubaker, Clements Vonnegut, G. A. Schnull, W. P. Jungclaus and J. J. Valdenaire. Public buildings and grounds-Louis H. Gibson, Mrs. Thomas C. Day, Henry Dupont, C. N. Kendall, the Rev. G L. Mackintosh and J. E. Clellan. Legislation-Robert McBride, Mrs. May Wright Sewall, the Rev. F. O. Ballard, Sylvester Johnson, the Rev. R. F. Souter and F. A.

ASK HIM

If He Can Get On With Candy.

Try the experiment asking the next man you talk with: "Are you fond of candy?" Nearly always the answer is something like, "Sure, but it always upsets me, coats enjoy the pleasures of candy eating, satisfy that strong natural demand of the body for sweets and get the value of energy that perfectly digested candy produces? And why all this benefit from Dextro Candy and not from others? Because the new candies are digestible. All candy made from cane and beet sugar must be digested by the liver and in many cases just a little overtaxes that hard worked organ. It then partly congests, as general allover feeling of disorder and The new chocolates and candles are made from Post Sugar, so manufactured that it is predigested and does not tax the liver Trial proves the truth of the statement.

cents a package.

GERMAN ARCHITECT IS HIGHLY PLEASED

ing Bruno Schmitz, Visits Capt. J. A. Lemcke in This City.

the German government at the St. Louis Inspector Stanley continues, the latest one the guest of Capt. J. A. Lemcke, to whom street. This building is erected over the known here as the architect of the soldiers' ing the building to settle with them. The

His orders, however, will come in a great | condition not dangerous. part from the Emperor, who is taking an sonal interest in its construction.

Herr Brurein expressed himself as very of their asbestos curtains. much pleased with American architecture and engineering. He spent a few days in New York and the work of the Americans | means of egress at the Park were found to there was a revelation to him. He said be amply sufficient, so far as the committhe United States took the lead in the work | tee could judge, to correspond with the to be learned here by foreign architects and engineers. So well pleased was he with what he has seen, he has determined to make a tour of the larger cities of the country before returning to his native land. He left over the Big Four yesterday afternoon for St. Louis, where he will be en-gaged with his work until some time in June or July.

YOUNG PEOPLE'S UNION WILL BE ORGANIZED

Rev. Henry Saunderson Delivers an Address at the Unitarian Church.

At the Unitarian Church on North Alabama street last night the Rev. Henry H. Saunderson addressed the members of that congregation preparatory to the organization of a Young People's Religious Union. The Rev. Mr. Saunderson is an Eastern man and is pastor of the Unitarian Church at Cambridge, Mass. He is a close friend of the Rev. E. E. Newbert and stopped off in Indianapolis while making a tour of the Western States in the interest of the Young People's Union. Following his address an informal reception was ten-The talk of the Rev. Mr. Saunderson was and objects of the organization. In a very impressive manner he pictured the good that comes from fellowship. "Sympathy, co-operation and fellowship bring about the finest things in life," he said. "The keeping n touch with one another, the harmonizing of ideas are always productive of good." He then pointed out the necessity of the young learning to assume responsibility and to do things. The young should be given a work and taught the responsibility of doing it, he insisted. The Rev. Mr. Newbert announced that ne would soon call a meeting of the members of his congregation to organize a

Young People's Union. KNIGHTS OF FIDELITY

INSTALL OFFICERS

At the meeting of the Knights of Fidelity yesterday afternoon the newly-elected officers were installed. They are as follows: Valiant commander, John Wolsifer; lieutenant commander, Lee Wolf; treasurer, Mike Federspill; recorder, Louis Koerner; chief orator, J. W. Murphy; financial secretary, E. A. Harmening; master of cere-James P. Finn; tyler, Charles J. Dirk. The trustees are Henry Heinken, Joseph Schaub, F. Hennekamp, Phil Zapp, H. Bacher, Joseph Baldus and John Herr. An auditing committee has been appointed which is composed of the following-named members: John Agnew, M. J. Mannix and August Merkt. Dr. J. C. Alexander was selected as physician of the order. Favorable reports were received from the various committees appointed to make arrangements for the fifth annual ball of the order at the South Side Turner Hall on Dental and Medical Students. The annual examination of dental and medical students, which was held at the Statehouse this week, closed yesterday, About seventy students from different parts of the State took the examinations. The Dental College. The papers of the appli- fight succeeded in putting out the fire. Mrs. Board of Medical Registration and certifi- are not serious. Mrs. Hensel's condition,

LEWIS BOLIN AWARDED

A VERDICT OF $6,000

FRANK S. CLARK CAMP

It Is One of the Heaviest Record- Local Spanish-American War Vet- Fourteenth Annual Gathering Will Plans of the Columbus, Greensburg ed Against Street-Railway Company in Years.

Lewis Bolin was yesterday awarded a verdict for $6,000 damages against the Indianapolis Traction and Terminal Company. Bolin was run over by a North Illi- | the Statehouse, it was decided to reorganize | meeting is expected to be the largest the nois-street car on Sept. 14, 1902, and lost a | completely the camp, securing a new charleg, besides receiving other severe injuries. | ter, electing new officers, and, in fact, start-He filed suit for $20,000 damages before ing on a new career. Last night was elec- sociation are P. S. Sullivan, president; B. Judge Carter and after a three days' trial tion night, but in view of the reorganization F. Stalker, vice president; L. W. Dunfee, the jury returned a verdict for the sum plan the election was postponed until the

The verdict is one of the heaviest recorded against the street-railway company in several years. Mr. Bolin was represented by Edward H. Wright and Elmer E. Stevenson. The jury was out four and a

FIRE CHIEF COOTS WANTS AN ASSISTANT

A third assistant chief of the fire department may be asked of the Council by Fire Chief Coots if it is found there is nothing my tongue and makes me feel so mean it in the city charter that can be construed | The present membership of the camp is thiras opposing such an office. Chief Coots is Did you ever know that you can feed said to desire such an assistant, believing that man on Dextro Chocolates and Candles | that the best service of his department dejust at the time he feels worst and he will mands one. Because of the extent of terdigest them, his tongue clear off and he can ritory which it is necessary for the two assistant chiefs to cover two or three large fires at the same time in widely separated parts of the city would leave firemen at one or the other of the places under the necessity of working without direction from a

Mayor Holtzman has expressed himself in favor of a new assistant chief, and members of the Council have stated that they will de all in their power to pass an ordinance creating the office provided it is shown by furred tongue, sallow skin and a determined by the city attorney that a third assistant chief is possible under the charter.

Cold Wave Warning.

Weather Observer Blythe stated yesterday that a cold wave was bearing down Found at Druggists and Grocers at 25 on this section and the temperature would drop twenty degrees by this evening.

A FURTHER INSPECTION OF THE LOCAL THEATERS

Visit the Park, English and Unique.

ORDERS FROM EMPEROR NATHAN MORRIS SCHOOL OTHER NEW CONCERNS ELECTION OF OFFICERS TWO ROUTES AVAILABLE

Herr Brurein will be the agent of Profes- alarmed at this condition and requested an by about eighty students, and it is said has beds without being filtered.

active interest in the erection of the Ger- examination of the city's theaters completman building. The Emperor is a man of ed its preliminary examination of them Harry B. Wilson, of Franklin, and L. D. very practical ideas and is greatly inter- | yesterday morning with a visit to the Park | ested in the representation that his country and a second visit to the English. This inshall have. He has let out the work to a spection had particularly to do with the exsupervising architect, but is taking a per- amination of means of egress provided by the houses and the efficiency and reliability

Councilman Eppert, chairman of the committee, stated last evening that the of his profession and that there was much house's seating capacity, and only surpassed, if at all, by those of the English. The asbestos curtains were also tested and were found to be in excellent working order. An attempt was not made yesterday to see if the curtains are proof against fire, but this may be done at another time. A piece of asbestos cloth, said to be of exactly the same material as that from which the curtain of the English is constructed, was subjected to a fire test and was found to resist the blaze. The Unique was also examined by the Council committee, which, because of the very different conditions of the house, found little to recommend for change. The | South Shore Amusement Company was incommittee will make further investigation, corporated with the secretary of state. Al- of the secretary and treasurer of the so-

> CLEVER FORGER IS AT LAST CAUGHT

theater conditions before taking any action on the proposed theater fire protection ordinance that was introduced at the last meet-

Man Giving the Name of Arthur Bannister Arrested at Chattanooga, Tenn.

The Daniel Stewart Drug Company, of this city, has been bothered recently by a clever forger, who has drawn checks on it from New York, Baltimore, Philadelphia and Chattanooga, in amounts ranging from $10 to $100. The company started an investigaformal and he merely outlined the nature | tion which yesterday resulted in the arrest a young man in Chattanooga who gave name of Arthur Bannister. Bannister was caught by the Chattanooga detectives as he emerged from a bank, having succeeded in cashing another forged check drawn on the Daniel Stewart Drug Company. It is estimated that the total amount of money secured on the forged checks drawn on the Indianapolis firm will amount to about $1,000. The drug company has no one in its employ by the name of Bannister, and the members of the firm are a loss to know who the criminal is.

SALOON KEEPERS FINED.

Dispensers of Liquid Refreshments Appear in Court.

John Burkhardt, bartender for William Miller, who runs a saloon in the rear of the Fletcher Bank building, was fined $20 and costs in Police Court yesterday morning on a charge of selling liquor to minors. INTERURBAN ROADS Burkhardt was arrested by Patrolmen Scribner and Streit for selling a glass of beer to a colored boy who was under fifteen. Several saloon keepers were in Police Court yesterday morning on charges of violating the Nicholson law and they were fined for their offenses.

The cases against A. H. Gelman and John Gill, saloon keepers charged with selling liquor to Jonas Junger, a fourteenyear-old boy, were continued until Jan. 20

WOMAN BADLY BURNED; ASSISTED BY FRIENDS

Mrs. Matilda Hensel, 45 North Capitol avenue, was seriously burned early yesterday morning while preparing breakfast for her husband. Flames from the stove in the kitchen ignited her wrapper and in a second her clothing was a mass of flames She ran into the hall and cried for help Mrs. Nellie English and Mrs. Ida Schrimer. who live in the same apartment, ran to dentists were examined at the Indiana the woman's assistance and after a hard will be examined at once by the State burned about the hands, but their injuries cates will be issued to those who made an average grade of 75 and over.

TRUSTEES OF INDIANA WILL BE REORGANIZED

erans Will Secure New Charter and Start Again.

At last night's meeting of the members of Frank S. Clark Camp, No. 26, Spanish- Trustees' Association of Indiana will be American War Veterans, held in Room 26 of held at the Statehouse Jan 21 and 22. The meeting on Feb. 3, when the reorganization will take place. Last night's meeting was devoted to a discussion of the plans to be followed after the reorganization The new charter will be secured from Col. Russell B. Harrison, adjutant general of the Spanish-American War Veterans. It was also decided that after Feb. 3 the initiation fee shall be increased to $2 and the dues raised in order to create a general fund to be used as a sick benefit at the rate of $3 a week. The camp has selected the National Veteran, a paper published in Chicago, as its official organ. After its reorganization the camp expects to have a rapid growth in membership. About twenty members were present last night and pledged themselves to devote more time to the work of the camp. ty-eight. Capt. J. L. Anderson, adjutant general of the Department of Indiana, is the present commander of the camp. Capt. G. W. Powell, of this city, was recently appointed quartermaster of the na-

of Youngstown, O. Song Service at the Grand.

tional association to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Capt. James A. Freed,

At the Grand Opera House to-morrow evening the First Baptist Choir, under the direction of Mr. Leo B. Riggs, will give Horatio Parker's cantata, "The Holy Child." Quartet and soloists; Mrs. Leo B Riggs, soprano; Miss Jessie D. Lewis, contralto; Charles J. W. Parker, tenor; Arthur Deuel Gates, basso. The programme follows: Tenor solo, "The Angel;" chorus, "Night in Bethlehem;" soprano solo, "The Visit of the Shepherds;" chorus, "The Manger Throne;" duet (soprano-tenor), "Cradle Hymn;" male chorus, "Procession of the Magi;" bass solo, "The Prophetic Song;" chorus, "Hymn of Praise."

HELD NIGHT SESSION TO SECURE EDUCATION

INDIANA ENGINEERS

Herr Wilhelm Brurein, Represent- Members of the Council Committee Indiana Correspondence College Professors of Purdue University Recommendation to That Effect Read Papers That Arouse Considerable Interest.

Architect Wilhelm Brurein, representing | Inspection of city buildings by Building | In order to enlarge its work of assisting | At last night's session of the convention students in the acquirement of a college edu- of the Indiana Engineering Society there world's fair, stopped off in Indianapolis to come under his inspection being the cation, the Indiana Correspondence College was a good attendance. "Filters vs. Con- ty-eighth street, petition for which was yesterday on his way to St. Louis. He was Nathan Morris School, at 528 South Illinois of Indianapolis yesterday filed articles of in- tact Beds in Sewage Purification," illus- made to the Board of Works several weeks corporation with the secretary of state. The | trated with stereopticon views, was the he presented letters of introduction from bed of Pogue's run, with the center of the offices of the college are located in the Com- subject of a paper read by W. S. Shields, Engineer Jeup at yesterday's meeting. The Prof. Brune Schmitz, the celebrated monu- structure supported by a line of iron col- mercial Club building, where the work of ed- of Chicago. Mr. Shields explained the use route for the extension proposed by the ment builder of the Fatherland, and well umns which have settled somewhat, caus- ucating by correspondence has been carried of filters, and pictures of water after being engineer is as follows: on for several months under the supervision | filtered were shown and contrasted with sor Schmitz, who is the architect for the Inspection of the building by Mr. Stanley, been very successful. However, those in A description of the heating plant re-German building at the world's fair, and After making such inspection yesterday charge desired to enlarge the school's scope, cently installed at Purdue University was and thence north on Bellefontaine street to will have complete control of its erection. Mr. Stanley stated that he considered its and, therefore, increased its capital stock in given in the paper read by Prof. J. D. Hoff- Thirtieth street. An alternate route sugorder to secure the necessary funds. It is man, of Purdue. The paper was illustrated gested by the engineer was an extension now capitalized at $10,000, held by Robert J. with streopticon views of the plant describ- the Cornell-avenue line from Thirteenth Indianapolis; Urie D. Collins, of Rockport; Coffman, of Salem. The work of education this city, read a paper describing a new of the street and frequent jogs in its is to be carried on by means of correspondautomatic stationary engine built by his course firm, and a paper on "The De Laval Steam trated with stereopticon views. With the meeting this morning the convention will adjourn. The board of direc-> posed of architects and engineers of the the state society. Interurban railroads and steam railroads will be thoroughly discussed before adjournment at noon to-day. Thomas B. Mc-Math, of Indianapolis, will read a paper on "Some Special Street-railway Work." Other Cities," and one on "Railroads," by A. Shane, of Frankfort. The report of the committees on surveying and on railroads will be made this morning. The board of Michigan, near Michigan City, Ind., the

with a view to enlightening itself on though capitalized at only $15,000, the com- ciety. their improvements from its dividends. The INDIANAPOLIS SEWAGE incorporators of the company are Alexander C. Tawse, Albert Cook and John H. Lord, of Michigan City.

Unitah Tribe, No. 302, Improved Order of Red Men, of Kokomo, incorporated with the following trustees: S. H. Hurd, J. C. SAID TO BE DANGEROUS

That the sewage of Indianapolis is more dangerous than the refuse from the straw-Hodgens and Ira Crumley. The presiding officer, bearing the title of sachem, is board works was the unanimous opinion of the members of the Indiana Engineering D. S. Nafe, of Chicago, C. J. Anderson and G. Opperman, of Michigan City, are Society at the meeting held in the assembly room of the Commercial Club yesterday aftthe incorporators of the Indiana Jubilee Iron Company, established at Michigan ernoon. While no plan was suggested to remedy the existing conditions, the matter jubilee self-heating sad irons, which are manufactured by the Jubilee Iron Comwas thoroughly discussed.

A. J. Hammond, chairman of the committee on stream pollution, read the report of the committee. Several addresses were made on stream pollution, principal among which was the address of Dr. J. N. Hurty, secretary of the State Board of Health. Dr. Hurty said the sewage from Indianapolis drained into the river was more dangerous than the refuse from the strawboard works. Prof. R. L. Sackett, of Earlham College, also spoke on this subject. The principal business of the morning meeting was the election of officers. The following officers were elected by ballot: President, Prof. R. L. Sackett (re-elected); vice president, J. B. Nelson, Indianapolis Two trustees were elected as follows: R. P. Woods, Indianapolis; J. W. Fulwider, city engineer of Lebanon. The treasurer and secretary of the society is elected by the board of directors. That the majority of the members of the ociety are in favor of automatic stokers was made apparent at the meeting yestershould have artificial gas with which to day morning in the discussion following the supply the public before it can turn off the reading of the paper on "Smoke Prevention," by R. P. King, of this city. The general opinion of the engineers was that cost of manufacturing gas, will be received caused by improper firing and crowding within a week or ten days, after which the boilers beyond their capacity. company will decide upon its future course MODERN WOODMEN

H. Brill, who is making estimates on the the smoke trouble in Indianapolis was

INSTALL OFFICERS TO HANDLE FREIGHT Last night, at its hall at Fountain Square, Marion Camp No. 3558 of the Modern Wood-Several interurban roads that were dimen of America installed officers and renrected by the Board of Public Works to bedered before a large audience a programme gin the carrying of freight reported to the of song and recitations. Camp 3558 is the board yesterday that they would comply largest in the State and has a membership with the request of the board as soon as of 1,000. The officers in charge were: Infacilities for handling freight at the terminals can be provided. The complaint was stalling officer, Arthur S. Wright; chief made to the board that the Indianapolis foresters, Capt. Jacob Fox and Maj. Thom-Traction & Terminal Company had agreed as Wysong; master of ceremonies, C. A. with several of the interurban companies | Osborn to furnish such facilities, but had not yet The following new officers were installed: one so, leaving these roads the only alter-Venerable, consul, A. V. Lawrence; worthy native of handling their freight in the adviser, John Bunning; clerk, Frank P assistant clerk, James Sanks; banker, Henry Maas; escort, Fred Myers; watchman, Fred Beeler; sentry, Clifton Parker; manager, Bert Hanchin; manager, Jonathan Bandy; physician, Samuel B.

Petition in Bankruptey.

who was convicted of the murder of Alice Speer & Fisher, merchants of Bloomington, Ind., filed a petition in bankruptcy yes-Dunn's judgment of conviction, which was terday. Their assets are placed at $818.50, cants for license to practice in the State | English and Mrs. Schrimer were badly | three judges out of five, two of them believing that he was not guilty. The petition | ton Bros., the Nichols-Krull Company, Cenfor a rehearing set forth the point that the tury Biscuit Company and Brinkmeyer, evidence did not show that Dunn had even | Kuhn & Co., of this city, are among the seen the girl on the day she was murdered. creditors of the firm.

CAPITAL IS INCREASED WILL SOON MEET HERE IN SUM OF $1,500,000

& Richmond Traction Company Announced.

At a meeting of the directors of the Columbus, Greensburg & Richmond Traction Company in this city yesterday afternoon it was decided to increase the capital stock of the road from $1,000,000 to $2,500,000. The increase will be made as soon as arrangements are completed, and Charles N. Wilson, the general manager, thinks this will secretary, and William H. Goff, treasurer. be within the next few days. The preliminary survey of the road from this city to Richmond will be commenced in a few days. Mr. Wilson will go with the engineering party in order to see that everything is 10:15 a. m.-Address of retiring president, done properly. A great deal of work has to be done before any "dirt is thrown," but the directors believe that actual work on the construction will commence as soon as the weather is settled in the spring. According to Mr. Wilson, the greatest difficulty will be in getting the machinery ready for the powerhouse. He says the road will be ready for traffic before the powerhouse will be completed. The power plant is to be located at Greensburg.

> MEDICAL SOCIETY ON THE CITY HOSPITAL

A meeting of the Indianapolis Medical Society will be held in the Willoughby 10:30 a. m.-"The Trustee as a Road-Maker," Trustee C. W. McReynolds. Disbuilding next Monday night. The subject for discussion will be "The City Hospital." cussion led by Trustee F. E. Fults, Trustee It is hoped that as a result of the meeting 11:20 a. m.-"A few Friendly Words," Govconditions at the hospital will be changed ernor W. S. Durbin. Committee reports on for the better. An historical sketch of the hospital will be delivered by Dr. G. V. Woolen. A paper on "The Material Needs 1:30 p. m .- "Public Charity," Trustee W. S. and Growth of the Hospital" will be read by Dr. Frank A. Morrison, and one on "The Discussion, led by Trustee J. W. Dragoo. Hospital as an Institution for Investigation 2:15 p. m.—"Relation of Board of State Charities to Trustee," A. W. Butler, secreand Instruction," by Dr. L. H. Dunning and Dr. Louis Burckhardt, John H. Holli-2:40 p. m.-General discussion, led by day will speak on the hospital as a public

> Razors, Scissors, Barber Furniture. THE J. E. BODINE CO., 37 East Ohio

COLLEGE AVENUE LINE MAY SOON BE EXTENDED

Made to the Board by the City Engineer.

Extension of the College avenue street car line from its present terminus at Twenago, was recommended to the board by City

Beginning at the Twenty-eighth street of George F. Bass. The school is patronized water taken after passing through contact terminus of the line, north to Twenty-ninth street along Sutherland avenue, east on ing the work of building and the uses to street to Thirtieth street, but this he conwhich the plant is put. F. F. Chandler, of sidered difficult because of the narrowness

There has been a discussion as to whether Mr. Bass was formerly supervisor of the In- Turbine" was read by Prof. G. A. Young, of Sutherland avenue is or is not a publi Purdue University. Both papers were illus- thoroughfare, and the engineer gave it as his opinion that it is, an examination of the records of deeds of property along that street leading him to that conclusion. The tors of the society will report on the adengineer recommended that the board take visability of admitting the recently oraction to condemn Sutherland avenue, so ganized Indianapolis Technical Club, comthat the question may be settled legally. city, into the society. It is believed that the club will be admitted to membership in ty-foot private right-of-way along Sutherland avenue, that it could use for the extension if it so desired. Residents will prepare a new petition specifying the route suggested by the engineer, and this will be acted upon by the board. J. J. Appel, as the representative papers will be read by Charles L. Sellers, of Peru, on "Surveys for Electric Railway Construction;" John W. Fullwider, of Lebanon, on "Interurban Railways in Small Cities," and one on "Railroads," by A. Shane, of Frankfort. The report of the

COLORED MEN ARE directors probably will announce the names MAKING PREPARATIONS

> The Colored Men's Business League held an informal meeting at the Seventh Presbyterian Church last night to discuss plans for the entertainment of the national meeting of that organization, which is to be held here next August. The formal address of Dr. Brown was not heard because of the cold room. Instead the members gathered around the coal stove and "talked the matnext August will be one of the largest as> semblages of colored people that has ever come to Indianapolis. The local organiza-tion intends to make it the largest in the history of the organization, and they are looking for not fewer than two thousand negroes here at that time. The place of holding the convention has not yet been selected. The present national officers of the league are: Booker T. Washington, president; G. L. Knox, of this city, vice president; Emmet J. Scott, Alabama, secretary; Gilbert G. Harris, Boston, treasurer, and Dr. S. A. Furniss, Indianapolis, member of

OLD RESIDENT'S DEATH

Mrs. Elizabeth A. Taylor Passes

Away at Age of Eighty. Mrs. Elizabeth A. Taylor, widow of the late Israel Taylor, died Thursday night at her home, 520 North Capitol avenue, at the age of eighty years. Mrs. Taylor was born at Lynchburg, Va., and came, in 1854, to this city, where she remained up to the time of her death. Shortly after coming to this city she became identified with the old Wesley Chapel, then located on the Circle and Meridian street. Later Mrs. Taylor joined the Meridian-street Church and was a member of that church for forty years. Mrs. Taylor was closely identified with the religious work of the city and was untiring in her efforts. She leaves two children, Charles P. Taylor, of this city, and George M. Taylor, of Portland, Ore.
The funeral services will be held this afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Meridian-street Church. The burial will be at Crown Hill

New Planos, $165 and up. Wulschner's Pioneer Brass Works. Aluminium and Brass Castings.

418-424 S. Penn. st. Try Schuller's Wine House, 219 N. Meridian, for sweet and dry wines. See the ABSOLUTELY VISIBLE WRITING typewriter, the UNDERWOOD, at 137 E. Washington St.

Gas coke, $6 a ton. Connellsville coke, $6.50 a ton. Best quality. COBURN COAL CO.

Fay-Sholes Typewriters Run Easy Write Fast

Wear Long - AND -Satisfy Their Users Get Booklet giving 26 reasons why you should buy a Fay-Sholes.

The I. C. Burkhart Co. DEALERS 47 Monument Circle, INDIANAPOLIS, IND.

BLUE POINTS Ic EACH

Highgrade, Aged and Strictly Straight WHISKIES Only.

DR. SWAIN'S HEALTH HOME 73 Middle Drive, Woodruff Place. Superior accommodations for chronic and pervous cases. New Telephone 257.

ACCOUNTANT Books posted, audited and balanced. J. H. C. DENMAN, Fitzgerald Euliding

SOLD EVERYWHERE

Let the GOLD DUST twins do your work

Cost a little more than machine work but always fit and are comfortable. THE EXCELSIOR Is the only laundry in the city that does hand Work.

CORRECT

Marcus Ward's Royal Irish Linen Pongee and

MAY WE SHOW YOU?

Monarch Bond

IMPORTERS 29 and 31 West Washington St.

"Your Cake will be Dough" If you fall to buy Household Bread

> Made by the best bakers out of the best materials

Biggest, Best, Cheapest.

in special ovens. :: :: ::

Joseph Taggart Bakeries

Reduction in Price

Lump Coke $4.50 per Ton or 9c per Bushel CALL AND SECURE TICKETS

The Indianapolis Gas Co. 49 South Pennsylvania Street

The St. Paul

Road

Owns and operates the sleeping, dining, library and other cars on its trains. and offers an excellence of service and equipment not obtainable elsewhere.

This is the route of the Overland Limited, Chicago to Omaha and San Francisco; the Southwest Limited. Chicago to Kansas City; the Pioneer Limited, Chicago to St. Paul and Minneapolis.

Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Railway.

TICKETS

Cincinnati, Ohio

C. C. Mordough, D. P. A. 12 Carew Building

EDUCATIONAL

DAY and NIGHT SCHOOL The Fifty-Fourth Year. Special Rates. Indianapolis W Entire Floor When Bullding.

SAWS AND MILL SUPPLIES.

FINEST ON EARTH Hand, Crosscut, Butcher, Kitchen and Mill Saws

Shirts and Vests when HAND LAUNDERED

Phone 249 and it will bring one of our wagons,